

BACKGROUND OF THE
NATIONAL AMERICAN ESKIMO DOG ASSOCIATION

The National American Eskimo Dog Association was started by Mr. John L. Wilson and his group in DeSoto, Missouri. The first meeting was held in November of 1969, and the first National American Eskimo Dog Show was held in May of 1970, in DeSoto, Missouri. The National Shows are hosted by different state associations each year. Following is a listing of where the National Shows have been held:

1971 - Mt. Vernon, Illinois
